IMPORTANT NOTICE

Listed below are some Important Notices that We are obliged to bring to Your attention. Please read these Important Notices and if You are in doubt as to how they may affect You contact Our Office and ask for an explanation.

Your duty of disclosure

Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty to tell Us anything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms.

You have this duty until We agree to insure You.

You have the same duty before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell Us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- We know or should know as an insurer; or
- We waive Your duty to tell Us about.

If You do not tell Us something

If You do not tell Us anything You are required to, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Privacy

We are committed to complying with privacy laws and protecting Your personal information. By entering into a contract with Us, You agree to:

- the collection, use and disclosure of Your personal information to evaluate, effect, manage and administer Your insurance Cover, financial service or product provided to You by Us, any related company, or in conjunction with Us. This applies to personal information provided previously, currently and in the future;
- the collection, use and disclosure of Your personal information to inform You of other products and services offered by Us, Our related entities or Your representative;
- the use and disclosure of Your personal information to test and improve upon the systems used to manage Your Policy or financial product;
- the collection from, and/or disclosure of, Your personal information to a third party which may include Your Professional Association, Your employer and Our service providers (including but not limited to other insurers, medical practitioners, lawyers, claims consultants, loss assessors and investigators), where this is relevant for the administration of Your insurance policy or a claim under this Policy;
- the disclosure of Your personal information to overseas recipients, where relevant, such as some of Our reinsurers; and
- the disclosure of Your personal information to a person, regulatory bodies or other entities if We are required or permitted to do so by law.

If You do not provide the requested personal information We may not be able to evaluate, effect, manage or administer Your Policy and You may also be in breach of Your duty of disclosure.

We will ensure that Your personal information is accurate, up-to-date and complete. You may access personal information We hold about You by contacting Us.

If You would like to make a complaint about how We have handled Your personal information please contact Us and speak to one of Our staff who will assist You.

Please contact Us if You would like further information about the Code of Practice. Alternatively, You can view the Code of Practice at www.codeofpractice.com.au.

Premium Payments by Instalments

When You pay Your premium by instalments, then:

- if a premium is overdue for a period exceeding 14 days We may refuse to pay any Claim arising from an event that happens after the due date of the instalment;
- if a premium is overdue for a period exceeding one calendar month We may cancel this Policy; and
- if We agree to pay Your Claim, We will deduct any outstanding premium from the Claim payment.

Claims Made Cover

Section 1 – Professional Indemnity operates on a claims made basis. This means that Section 1 – Professional Indemnity Covers You for Claims made against You and notified to Us during the Period of Cover. Section 1 – Professional Indemnity does not provide Cover in relation to:

- acts, errors or omissions occurring or committed by You prior to the Retroactive Date of the Policy (if such a date is specified in the Schedule);
- Claims made after the expiry of the Period of Cover even though the event giving rise to the Claim may have occurred during the Period of Cover;
- Claims made, threatened or intimated against You prior to the commencement of the Period of Cover;
- facts or circumstances of which You first became aware prior to the Period of Cover, and which You knew or ought reasonably to have known had the potential to give rise to a Claim under this Policy;
- any Claims arising out of circumstances noted on the Application for the current Period of Cover or on any previous Application.

Where You give notice in writing to Us of any facts that might give rise to a Claim against You as soon as reasonably practicable after You become aware of those facts, but before the expiry of the Period of Cover, You may have rights under Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to be indemnified in respect of any Claim subsequently made against You arising from those facts notwithstanding that the Claim is made after the expiry of the Period of Cover. Any such rights arise under the legislation only. The terms of the Policy and the effect of the Policy is that You are not Covered for Claims made against You after the expiry of the Period of Cover.
